18th ANNUAL GENIUS DAY 2011

SATURDAY, MAY 7th from 1-4 P.M.

Come rain or shine!

Enjoy demonstrations, activities and free rides for “children of all ages”.

Competitive Shooting from Horseback

Lisa Dicamillo of Colorado will demonstrate Cowboy Mounted Shooting from horseback using Sashay, her Tennessee Walking Horse. Lisa is the Ladies Senior Pro in Mounted Shooters of America and a Senior Ladies Level IV in the Cowboy Mounted Shooters of America in 2010.

Linda Starnes, husband Larry, and Traveling Time, a World Versatility Champion Tennessee Walking Horse, from Brownsville, Kentucky, will honor us with a Parelli style ride in the Opening Ceremonies.

Charlie Roach, Smithfield, Kentucky, will emcee our day. Charlie is a renowned trainer of World Champion-ranked Tennessee Walking Horses. Horse-shoeing is his specialty.

Tim Scarberry and Chuck Teague will be rejoining us to provide a presentation of re-educating a horse. Neither men will know the horse he gets until it's brought into the arena. SURPRISE !

Rose Miller of Goshen, Indiana, has used her love of equines to author the book, “The Horse That Wouldn't Trot”. The book shares her personal memoirs of adventures and training concepts. She will join us to to autograph copies available for purchase.

Come and enjoy!
