September 2018

Blazing Saddles 4-H Club member Olivia Grude, with Cinnamon, represented Maple Crest Farms this year at the Erie County Fair, bringing home trophies, ribbons and lots of lasting memories. One of her best days was her 1st Place trophies in both Thursday's Champion Saddle Seat 2-gaited Equitation and Pleasure and the ribbons in Thursday night's fun show!

WHAO Summer Classic & Ohio Regional Futurity

Saturday, August 18, 2018

We are celebrating the ribbons awarded to the participants of the WHAO equine show held at the Ashland County Fairgrounds.

Two specific celebrants would be Shari Love with Legacy's Black Honor in hand and Megan Shock riding Legacy's Cashet of Cash. Both handlers and horses stepped up winning blue ribbons in multiple classes. Both horses originated at Maple Crest Horse Farm but each handler/trainer as amateurs added their own finesse culminating in Blue Ribbons. Congratulations and Kudos to each from Terry and Joyce.

WELCOME:

Lauren Kenaley & Angelo and Dozer, their quarter/paint rescue horse and Carol Heuckroth

Don't forget the upcoming Edison Woods Poker Ride on Sept. 22nd as well as the Open Speed show on Sept. 29th at the Erie County Fairgrounds. Let us know if you need your horses hauled.
